- 8.2. 10. MODIFYING RIGHTS

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attaching to any class may (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class, and the provisions of Section 199 of the Act shall apply mutatis mutandis to that resolution and meeting as if the resolution were a special resolution. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these articles of association relating to general meetings shall apply mutatis mutandis but so that, unless the shares of that class are held by only one member, the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding or representing the holders of at least one-third of all the issued shares of the class.

11. BORROWING POWERS

Subject to any restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to raise or borrow money or secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company and to mortgage or bind its undertaking and property or any part thereof and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities (including, without limitation, debentures, promissory notes and commercial paper) whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party. Subject to any restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the directors' power so to borrow, mortgage, bind the property and undertaking of the Company and to issue securities shall be unlimited in extent.

12. GENERAL MEETINGS

- 12.1. Save as is provided for in the Act, an annual general meeting shall be held not later than nine months after the end of each financial year of the Company, and not more than fifteen months shall elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next. The annual general meeting of the Company shall be held at such place and at such time as the directors may from time to time determine.

- 12.2. Any general meeting other than an annual general meeting of the Company shall be called a "general meeting", but for purposes of these articles of association a reference to a "general meeting", unless the context otherwise requires, shall include an annual general meeting.
- 12.3. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene a general meeting, and the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting if and when required so to do in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
- 12.4. An annual general meeting or a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by not less than twenty-one clear calendar days' notice in writing and any other general meeting shall be called by not less than fourteen clear days' notice in writing. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and, in the case of special business, the general nature of such business and shall be given in the manner mentioned below or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the articles of association, entitled to receive such notices from the Company; provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding the fact that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority holding not less than ninety-five per cent of the total voting rights of all the members.
- 12.5. In every notice calling a general meeting of the Company and on the face of every proxy form issued at the expense of the Company, there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote at the meeting is entitled to appoint one or more persons as his proxy to attend, speak and vote in his stead and that a proxy need not be a member.

13. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 13.1. The business of an annual general meeting shall be to receive and consider the annual financial statements, to declare or sanction dividends (where applicable), and to elect directors, auditors, and other officers in the place of those retiring, if any. All other business transacted at an annual general meeting and all business transacted at a general meeting shall be deemed special. Unless due notice of this special business has been given, no special business shall be transacted at an annual general meeting and only such business of which due notice has been given shall be transacted at a general meeting.
- 13.2. The quorum for a general meeting and at an adjourned or postponed meeting shall be two members entitled to vote, present in person or by proxy or, if the Company has only one member, such member, or in the case of a member being a trust, its trustee, or being a body corporate, its representative or, if the Company is a wholly owned subsidiary, the representative of the holding company.

- 13.3. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless the requisite quorum shall be present at the commencement of and throughout such meeting.
- 13.4. The chairman elected by the directors in terms of article 18.3 shall be entitled to take the chair at every general meeting, or if there be no chairman or if he shall have notified his inability to be present at the meeting, or if at any meeting he shall not be present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, the members personally present and the representatives of members which are bodies corporate shall choose another director as chairman; and if no director be present, or if all the directors present decline to take the chair, then such members and representatives shall choose one of their number to be chairman.
- 13.5. Save as is otherwise expressly provided by the Act or by the articles of association, all questions, matters and resolutions arising at or submitted to any general meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast and shall in the first instance be decided by a show of hands. The chairman shall not have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member, either on a show of hands or on a poll.
- 13.6. Subject to the provisions of the Act, at any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be final and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.
- 13.7. At any general meeting a poll may be demanded:
- 13.7.1. by the chairman; or
 - 13.7.2. by a member or members representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 13.8. A poll may not be demanded on the question of the election of a chairman and only the chairman may demand a poll on the question of any adjournment.
- 13.9. If a poll is demanded as aforesaid, it shall be taken in such manner and at such place and time as the chairman of the meeting directs and either immediately or after an interval or adjournment (not exceeding seven days). The demand for a poll may be withdrawn. Scrutineers shall be appointed by the chairman to count the votes and to declare the result of the poll, and their declaration, which shall be announced by the chairman of the meeting, shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. In case of any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote, the chairman of the meeting shall determine the dispute and the determination of the chairman made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.

- 13.10. The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
- 13.11. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a resolution in writing signed by all the members and inserted in the minute book of the Company shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a general meeting duly called and constituted and shall be deemed (unless a statement to the contrary is made in that resolution) to have been passed on the last day on which that resolution is signed by any one or more of the members, as the case may be. That resolution may consist of two or more documents in the same form each of which is signed by one or more members, as the case may be.
- 13.12. The chairman of a general meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, and he shall adjourn the same if duly required so to do in accordance with the provisions of the Act, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

14. VOTING

- 14.1. Subject to any special terms as to voting on which any share may be issued and subject to the Act, every person entitled to vote and who is present in person, and, if the person is a body corporate, its representative shall on a show of hands have one vote only, but on a poll every person entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy, and if the person is a body corporate, its representative, shall have one vote for every share held or represented by him.
- 14.2. On a poll taken at any such meeting a person entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
- 14.3. The persons entitled to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company shall be:
 - 14.3.1. the members, subject to the provisions of the articles of association as regards joint holders of shares;
 - 14.3.2. persons entitled under articles 6.7 and 6.8 to the transfer of any shares; or
 - 14.3.3. proxies of the persons referred to in articles 14.3.1 and 14.3.2 above, duly appointed in the manner prescribed in the articles of association.

- 14.4. Every such person shall also be entitled to speak at such meetings and, subject to article 13.7, to demand a poll.
- 14.5. When there are joint registered holders of any shares, any one of such persons may vote at any meeting in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto, but if more than one of such joint holders be present or represented at any meeting, that one of the said persons whose name stands first in the register in respect of such shares or his proxy, as the case may be, shall alone be entitled to vote in respect of such shares. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any shares stand shall for the purpose of this article be deemed joint holders thereof.
- 14.6. The parent or guardian of a minor, and the curator bonis of a lunatic member, and also any person entitled under the transmission clause to the transfer of any shares, may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he were the registered holder of those shares; provided that he shall, at least forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which he proposes to vote, satisfy the directors that he is such parent, guardian or curator or that he is entitled under the transmission clause to the transfer of those shares, or that the directors have previously admitted his right to vote in respect of those shares.
15. PROXIES
- 15.1. Any person referred to in articles 14.3.1 and 14.3.2 may appoint one or more persons, whether members or not, to act as his proxy or proxies at any meeting of the Company or any adjournment thereof. The appointment of a proxy shall be made either by means of a proxy form or by a power of attorney or by such other means as may be acceptable to the directors.
- 15.2. Every proxy form, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in such form as the directors shall from time to time approve and shall comply with the provisions of the Act.
- 15.3. The instrument or other authority appointing a proxy to attend and vote at any general meeting or establishing the right of any person to the transfer of shares under article 6.7 shall be deposited at the Company's office or elsewhere as may be determined by the directors not less than twenty-four hours before the time for the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting, as the case may be, at which such proxy or person proposes to vote, or at such other places and within such time as the directors may from time to time direct and unless such instrument or authority is so deposited such proxy or person shall not be entitled to attend and vote at the meeting. In calculating the period referred to above, Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays shall not be taken into account.
- 15.4. Proxy forms which, although not before a general meeting, have been duly deposited in accordance with the provisions set out above shall be valid for all the purposes of the meeting and the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled and empowered to act upon e-mailed, telefaxed or other written information relating to such forms and the terms thereof if such information purports to emanate from some person or persons in authority in the Company's offices or such other places as may be determined by the directors, as the case may be.

- 15.5. No instrument of proxy shall be valid after the expiry of twelve months from the date of its execution unless specifically so stated on the instrument itself.
- 15.6. A vote given by a proxy in accordance with the terms of the instrument appointing him shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal, or revocation of the authority, or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given, unless an intimation in writing of the death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received at the office before the meeting.

16. DIRECTORS

- 16.1. The number of directors shall not be less than one. The first directors shall be the subscribers to the memorandum and articles of association of the Company.
- 16.2. The directors shall not have the power to appoint any person as a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director.
- 16.3. The directors shall not be obliged to hold any shares to qualify them as directors.
- 16.4. Subject to any restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the directors shall be entitled to such directors fees as the Company in general meeting may from time to time determine.
- 16.5. The directors shall be paid all their travelling and other expenses properly and necessarily incurred by them in and about the business of the Company, and in attending meetings of the directors or of committees of directors.
- 16.6. A director shall cease to hold office as such:
 - 16.6.1. if by order of court his estate is provisionally or finally sequestrated or he is declared unable to manage his affairs or has been declared a prodigal or has been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty; or
 - 16.6.2. if by notice in writing to the Company he resigns his office; or
 - 16.6.3. if he ceases to be a director or becomes prohibited from being a director by virtue of the provisions of the Act or any other legislation or law; or

16.6.4. if he be removed from office by a resolution signed by all his co-directors; or 16.6.5. if he is removed under article 16.8.

16.7. No director or intending director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company, whether with regard to such office or as vendor or purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract, or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company, in which any director shall in any way be interested, be or be liable to be avoided; nor shall any director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such director holding that office, or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established, provided the nature of his interest has been declared by him in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

16.8. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office and may by ordinary resolution elect another person in his stead. The person so elected shall hold office during such time only as the director in whose place he is elected would have held office.

16.9. The Company shall keep at the office a register containing the particulars of its directors, managers and secretaries and shall furnish the Registrar of Companies with particulars thereof as provided for in the Act.

17. MANAGING DIRECTORS

17.1. Subject to any restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the directors or a committee of the directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their number to be managing director of the Company or to be the holder of any other executive office in the Company, including for the purposes of the articles of association the office of chairman or deputy chairman, and may, subject to any contract between him or them and the Company, from time to time terminate his or their appointment and appoint another or others in his or their place or places.

17.2. Subject to any restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the directors may from time to time entrust and confer upon a managing director or other executive officer appointed under article 17.1 for the time being such of the powers and authorities vested in them as they think fit, and may confer such powers and authorities for such time, and to be exercised for such objects and purposes and upon such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they may think expedient, and they may convert such powers and authorities either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of, or in substitution for, all or any of the powers and authorities of the directors in that behalf, and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers and authorities.

18. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

- 18.1. The directors may meet for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit. Except where there is only one director of the Company, two directors shall form a quorum. A director may at any time require the secretary to convene a meeting of the directors. A director who is not within South Africa shall not be entitled to notice of any such meeting, but notice shall be given to all duly appointed alternate directors who may at the time be within South Africa.
- 18.2. Questions arising at any meeting of the directors shall be decided by a majority of votes. If the quorum of directors is two, the chairman shall not have a second or casting vote if only two directors are present at a meeting of directors.
- 18.3. The directors may elect a chairman of their meetings and one or more deputy chairmen to preside in the absence of the chairman, and may determine a period for which they are to hold office, but if no such chairman or deputy chairman is elected or if at any meeting neither the chairman nor a deputy chairman is present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors shall choose one of their number to be chairman of such meeting.
- 18.4. A meeting of the directors at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions by or under the articles of association of the Company for the time being vested in or exercisable by the directors generally.
- 18.5. A resolution signed by directors (or their alternates, if applicable) who are present at the time in South Africa at the time when the resolution in question is signed by the first of such directors, whose number is a majority of the directors for the time being in office and is not less than a quorum for a meeting of directors, and inserted in the minute book shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors. Any such resolution may consist of several documents, each of which may be signed by one or more directors (or their alternates, if applicable) and shall be deemed to have been passed on the date on which it was signed by the last director who signed it (unless a statement to the contrary is made in that resolution).
- 18.6. A resolution signed by a majority of those directors who were connected electronically with each other by a video, telephone or similar conference facility in circumstances where:
- 18.6.1. the directors so connected remained connected for the duration of the conference and constituted all the directors of the Company or their respective alternates; or

- 18.6.2. all directors of the Company have been given, or reasonable attempts have been made to give, notification (whether electronic or otherwise) of the proposed conference and the directors so connected were in total not less than sufficient in number to form a quorum at a meeting of directors; and
 - 18.6.3. the subject matter of the resolution has been discussed during the conference; and
 - 18.6.4. the chairman, or failing him the deputy chairman, or failing him any other director so connected, certifies in writing that the requirements of 18.6.1 or 18.6.2 and 18.6.3 have been complied with;
 - 18.6.5. shall be deemed to have been passed on the date on which it was signed by the director who last signed it (unless a statement to the contrary is made in that resolution) and such resolution may consist of several documents, each of which may be signed by one or more of the directors participating in such conference.
- 18.7. Subject to any restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the directors may delegate any of their powers to a committee consisting of such member or members of their body or any person, as they think fit. Any committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may from time to time be imposed on it by the directors.

19. ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

- 19.1. Each director shall have the power to appoint a person to act as an alternate director in his place, and at his discretion to remove such alternate director and to appoint another in his stead, provided that the appointment of such alternate director shall be made in writing and shall be approved by the directors in their sole and absolute discretion. On such appointment being made and approved, the alternate director shall in all respects be subject to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other directors of the Company. An alternate director shall be entitled to act at all meetings and in all proceedings in which, and on all occasions when, the director who appointed him does not act himself. An alternate director shall look for his remuneration to the director appointing him, and shall have no claim against the Company for such remuneration.
- 19.2. An alternate director, whilst acting in the place of the director who appointed him, shall exercise and discharge all the duties and functions of the director whom he represents. The appointment of an alternate director shall be cancelled and the alternate director shall cease to hold office whenever the director who appointed him shall cease to be a director or shall give notice in writing to the secretary that the alternate director representing him shall have ceased to do so.

20. POWERS OF DIRECTORS

- 20.1. The management of the business and the control of the Company shall be vested in the directors who may exercise all such powers as may be exercised by the Company and are not hereby or by the Act expressly directed or required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting but subject, nevertheless, to the restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the provisions of the articles of association and to any resolution not inconsistent with the memorandum or articles of association passed at any general meeting of the members in accordance therewith; but no resolution passed by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if such resolution had not been passed.
- 20.2. The directors shall, to the extent lawfully entitled, reasonably consider the interests of the holders of any debt instruments issued by the Company pursuant to the securitisation scheme referred to in paragraph 2 of the memorandum of association, when exercising any powers, either expressly or by implication, conferred upon them for purposes of management and control of any business of the Company.

21. STATUTORY RECORDS

- 21.1. The directors shall comply with all the requirements of the Act as to the keeping of statutory records including those relative to the register, a register of interests of directors and others in shares and debentures of the Company, a register of directors and officers, a register of pledges and bonds, a register of the interests in contracts of directors and officers, a register of fixed assets, a register of allotments, a directors' attendance book and a minute book or books. The minutes shall record inter alia the names of all directors present at each meeting of directors or of any committee, all appointments of officers and all resolutions of general meetings and of meetings of directors and committees.
- 21.2. The minutes of any meeting of the directors or of any committee or of the Company if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting of directors or the Company and any resolutions passed in pursuance of articles 18.5 and 18.6, as the case may be, and any extract from such minutes or extract from any resolution in writing passed in terms of articles 18.5 and 18.6, if signed by any director or by the secretary or by any duly authorised person acting in the place of the secretary, shall be receivable as evidence of the matters stated in such minutes or extracts.

22. DIVIDENDS

- 22.1. Subject to the Act and the restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, the Company in general meeting or the directors may from time to time declare a dividend to be paid to the members in proportion to the number of shares held by them in each class or in such other proportion as the directors may determine; provided that the Company may not declare or pay any dividends to its shareholders unless all creditors ranking above such shareholders in accordance with the priority of payments established pursuant to the securitisation scheme referred to in paragraph 2 of the memorandum of association have been paid in full.
- 22.2. Dividends shall be declared payable to members registered as such on a date subsequent to the date of the declaration of the dividend.
- 22.3. No larger dividend shall be declared by the Company in general meeting than is declared by the directors, but the Company in general meeting may declare a smaller dividend.
- 22.4. Dividends shall be payable only out of the profits (whether current or past) of the Company and no dividend shall carry interest as against the Company. The declaration of the directors as to the amount of the profits of the Company shall be conclusive.
- 22.5. Dividends shall be declared in the currency of South Africa.
- 22.6. Any dividend so declared may be paid and satisfied either wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets or in paid up shares of the Company or in cash or in one or more of such ways, subject to the provisions of the Act, as the directors or the Company in general meeting may at the time of declaring the dividend determine and direct. In addition, if as a result of the declaration of a dividend any members become entitled to fractions of any specific assets of the Company, the directors may sell the assets represented by such fractions and after deducting the expenses of such sale distribute the balance of the proceeds of the sale amongst the members entitled to the fractions in proportion to their entitlement.
- 22.7. Subject to the Act, the directors may, from time to time, pay to the members on account of the next forthcoming dividend such interim dividend as in their judgment the financial position of the Company justifies.
- 22.8. In case several persons are registered as the joint holders of any shares, any one of such persons may give effective receipts for all dividends and payments on account of dividends in respect of such shares.
- 22.9. All dividends, interest or other monies payable to the registered holder of shares may be paid by cheque, or electronic transfer into the bank account nominated by the holder (or, in the case of joint holders, into the bank account nominated by the holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the share), or otherwise as the directors may from time to time determine, and may be sent by post to the last registered address requested by him, or, in the case of joint holders, to that one of them first named in the register in respect of such joint holdings; and the payment of such cheque or payment by electronic transfer into the bank account nominated by the holder, or in the case of joint holders into the bank account nominated by the holder whose name stands first in the register in respect of the share, shall be a good discharge by the Company in respect thereof. For the purpose of this article, no notice of change of registered address or instructions as to payment being made at any other address which is received by the Company between the record date for the dividend or return of capital and the respective date of payment of the dividend or repayment of capital, as the case may be, (both dates inclusive) and which would have the effect of changing the currency in which such payment would be made, shall become effective until after such date of payment. Every such payment made by electronic transfer shall be made at the risk of such holder or joint holders.

- 22.10. All unclaimed dividends payable to the registered holder of shares may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed, provided that all monies, other than dividends, which are payable to the registered holders of shares shall be held in trust by the Company until lawfully claimed by the shareholder concerned (subject to article 22.12).
- 22.11. The Company shall not be responsible for the loss in transmission of any cheque or other document sent through the post either to the registered address of any member or to any other address requested by him or for the loss or misdirection of any electronic transfer.
- 22.12. Dividends unclaimed for a period of not less than three years from the date on which such dividends became payable may be declared forfeited by the directors for the benefit of the Company.

23. CAPITALISATION

Such resolution may provide that any such sum or sums shall be set free for distribution and be appropriated to and amongst the members either with or without deduction for income tax, rateably according to their rights and shareholdings, in such manner as the resolution may direct; provided that no such distribution shall be made by the Company unless recommended by the directors, and the directors shall, in accordance with such resolution, apply such sum or sums in paying up shares, and appropriate such shares to, or distribute the sum or sums amongst the holders of such shares rateably according to their shareholding thereof respectively as stated above.

24. RESERVE FUND

- 24.1. The directors may, before declaring or recommending any dividends, set aside out of the amount available for dividends such sum as they think proper as a reserve fund or as an addition thereto. The directors may divide the reserve fund into such special funds as they think fit, with full power to employ the assets constituting such fund or funds in the business of the Company, or may invest the assets upon such investments (other than shares of the Company) as they may select, without being liable for any depreciation of, or loss in consequence of such investments whether the same be usual or authorised investments for trust funds or not.
- 24.2. The reserve fund shall, at the discretion of the directors, be available for the equalisation of dividends or for making provision for exceptional losses, expenses or contingencies, or for the extension or development of the Company's business, or for writing down the value of any of the assets of the Company, or to cover the loss in wear and tear or other depreciation in value of any property of the Company, or for any other purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied; and the directors may at any time divide among the members by way of bonus, or special dividends, any part of the reserve funds which they, in their discretion, may determine not to be required for such purposes.

25. ACCOUNTING RECORDS

- 25.1. The directors shall cause to be kept such accounting records as are prescribed by the Act. The accounting records shall be kept at the registered office, or at such other place or places as the directors think fit, and such accounting records shall always be open to the inspection of the directors and the members.
- 25.2. From time to time the directors shall determine whether, and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions or regulations, the accounts and accounting records of the Company, or any of them, shall be open to inspection by the members.
- 25.3. No member (other than a director) shall have any right to inspect any account or accounting record or document of the Company, except as conferred by the Act or as authorised by the directors, or as authorised by a resolution of the Company in general meeting.

- 25.4. From time to time and pursuant to the provisions of the Act, the directors shall cause to be prepared, and to be laid before the Company in general meeting, such annual financial statements and reports as are required by the Act.
- 25.5. Pursuant to the provisions of the Act, a copy of every annual financial statement which is to be laid before the Company in general meeting shall be delivered or sent by post to the registered address of every member and debenture holder or other person entitled to receive notice of general meetings of the Company, at least 21 days prior to such meeting at which the financial statements are to be laid before the Company, at the same time and in the same manner as notices of annual general meetings are given to members in terms of the articles of association.

26. AUDIT

- 26.1. The provisions of the Act shall be complied with in connection with the appointment of an auditor or auditors.
- 26.2. The remuneration of the auditors shall be fixed by agreement with the Company.
- 26.3. At least once in every financial year of the Company, the auditors shall examine the annual financial statements and group annual financial statements, if any, and shall report thereon to the members in terms of the provisions of the Act.
- 26.4. The auditors shall at all reasonable times have access to the accounting records and vouchers of the Company and also shall have all the further rights conferred upon them by the provisions of the Act.
- 26.5. Every annual financial statement and group annual financial statement, when audited and approved by an annual general meeting, shall be deemed conclusively correct and shall not be re-opened, unless any error is discovered within three months after the approval thereof, in which case the annual financial statements shall be corrected forthwith and thenceforth shall be deemed conclusively correct.

27. NOTICES

- 27.1. A notice shall be served by the Company to all members either personally or by sending it by post to his registered address. If a member has not notified an address, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to be served with notices.
- 27.2. All notices with respect to any shares to which persons are jointly entitled may be given to whichever of such persons is recognised by the Company as having any title to such shares in terms of articles 3.4 or 6.6, as the case may be, and notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

- 27.3. The notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member, or by sending it through the post in a prepaid envelope addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustees of the insolvent or by any like description, at the address (if any) supplied for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or insolvency had not occurred.
- 27.4. Any notice sent by the Company by post shall be deemed to have been served on the 10th day following the day on which the notice is posted, and in proving such service, it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice was properly addressed and posted.
- 27.5. If a given number of days' notice, or notice extending over any other period, is required to be given, the day of service and the day of the meeting, shall not be counted in such number of days or other period unless otherwise provided in the articles of association.
- 27.6. Every notice calling a general meeting of the Company shall comply with the provisions of the Act.
- 27.7. A notice given to any member shall be binding on all persons claiming on his death or on any transmission of his interests.
- 27.8. The signature to any notice given by the Company may be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed.

28. WINDING UP

- 28.1. Neither the directors, in their own capacity or on behalf of the Company, nor any member of the Company, shall institute, or join with any person in instituting, any proceedings for the liquidation, winding-up or judicial management of the Company or any compromise or scheme of arrangement with its members or any of its creditors or any related relief, in any court in South Africa or elsewhere, until two years after all the debt instruments issued or to be issued in relation to the securitisation scheme referred to in paragraph 2 of the memorandum of association have been redeemed in full, unless such directors or members would or may incur personal liability for any failure to do so.
- 28.2. Subject to article 28.1, the Company shall not cause itself to be voluntarily wound-up without a resolution being passed unanimously at a meeting of its board of directors.
- 28.3. If the Company is wound up, the assets remaining after payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company and the costs of the liquidation shall be applied as follows:

- 28.3.1. to repay to the members the amounts paid up on the shares respectively held by each of them; and
 - 28.3.2. the balance (if any) shall be distributed among the members in proportion to the number of shares respectively held by each of them;
 - 28.3.3. provided that the provisions of this article shall be subject to the rights of the holders of shares (if any) issued upon special conditions.
- 28.4. In a winding-up, any part of the assets of the Company, including any shares or securities of other companies may, with the sanction of a special resolution of the Company, be paid to the members of the Company in specie, or may, with the same sanction, be vested in trustees for the benefit of such members, and the liquidation of the Company may be closed and the Company dissolved.

29. INDEMNITY

- 29.1. Subject to the provisions of the Act and the restrictions in the memorandum and articles of association, every director, manager, secretary and other officer or employee of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company against all costs, losses and expenses which any such officer or employee may incur, or become liable for by reason of any contract entered into or act or deed done by him either as such officer or servant, or in any way in the discharge of his duties, unless the same happens through his own negligence, dishonesty or wilful default. It shall be the duty of the directors to pay any such costs, losses and expenses out of the funds of the Company.
- 29.2. Subject to the provisions of the Act, no director, manager, secretary or other officer or employee of the Company shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other director or officer or employee or for loss or expense happening to the Company through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by order of the directors, any security in or upon which any of the monies of the Company shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the insolvency or delictual acts of any person with whom any monies, securities or effects shall be deposited or for any loss or damage occasioned by any error of judgment or oversight on his part, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which shall happen in the execution of the duties of his office, or in relation thereto, unless the same happens through his own negligence or dishonesty or wilful default.

33. RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES AND CONDITIONS ATTACHING TO THE NON-CUMULATIVE REDEEMABLE PREFERENCE SHARES

33.1. The preference shares in the capital of the Company (referred to hereafter as the "Preference Shares") shall be issued at par or at a premium to be determined by the directors;

33.2. The Preference Shares shall rank pari passu with each other and shall confer the right to receive a variable non-cumulative preferential dividend (referred to hereafter as the "Preferential Dividend") out of the Company's statutory net profits after taxation available for distribution by way of dividends, as determined by the directors from time to time, in priority to any payments of dividends to the holders of the ordinary shares in the capital of the Company, calculated as follows:

- 33.2.1. the Preferential Dividend shall be paid in cash only unless the holder of the Preference Shares agrees otherwise;

- 33.2.2. the Preferential Dividend shall be calculated on the number of Preference Shares in issue at the date of declaration of the dividend;
 - 33.2.3. the Preferential Dividend will be due and payable, if declared, quarterly in arrears on Rate Determination Dates (as such term is defined in the programme memorandum to be issued pursuant to the securitisation scheme referred to in paragraph 2 of the memorandum of association) in an amount equal to the cash that is available for payment of the Preferential Dividend in terms of the Priority of Payments (as defined in the abovementioned programme memorandum) on such Rate Determination Dates, after the payment of all higher-ranking items in the Priority of Payments and subject to the provisions of the Act;

 - 33.2.5. all unclaimed Preferential Dividends payable to a registered holder of Preference Shares may be invested or otherwise made use of by the directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed, and the Company shall not be liable to any holder of Preference Shares for interest on any such unclaimed Preferential Dividend; and
 - 33.2.6. if on a given Rate Determination Date the Preferential Dividend, or part thereof, is not declared, then no dividend may be declared in respect of the ordinary shares in the capital of the Company until such arrear Preferential Dividends have been declared and paid.
- 33.3. The Preference Shares shall confer the right, on a winding-up of the Company, to receive, in priority to any payment in respect of the ordinary shares in the capital of the Company then issued:
- 33.3.1. a return of the nominal amount and premium (if any) paid up on the Preference Shares; and
